QUOTATIONS

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your father which is in heaven

-Matthew 5:16

A true love is to warn and to help people to be enlightened and stay away from wrong things. It is not to protect them from the bad consequences of their actions.

- Master Ching Hai

Manners are of more importance than laws. Upon them, in great measure, the laws depend. The law touches us but here and there, and now and then. Manners are what vex or soothe, corrupt or purify, exalt or debase, barbarize or refine us, by a constant, steady uniform, insensible operation like that of the air we breathe in."

- Edmund Burke

Until one is committed, there is hesitancy, the chance to draw back, always ineffectiveness. Concerning all acts of initiative and creation there is one elementary truth, the ignorance of which kills countless ideas and splendid plans: That the moment one definitely commits oneself, then Providence moves too. All sorts of things occur to help one that would never otherwise have occurred. A whole stream of events issues from the decision, raising in one's favor all manner of unforeseen incidents and meetings and material assistance, which no man could have dreamed would have come his way. I have learned a deep respect for one of Goethe's rhymes: "Whatever you can do, or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power, and magic in it.

-W.H. Murray- Scottish
Himalayan Expedition

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

-H.D. Thoreau

This is the true joy in life, the being used for a purpose recognized by yourself as a mighty one; the being thoroughly worn out before you are thrown on the scrap heap; the being a force of nature instead of a feverish selfish little clod of ailments and grievances complaining that the world will not devote itself to making you happy.

- George B. Shaw

The reasonable man adapts himself to the world; the unreasonable one persists in trying to adapt the world to himself. Therefore all progress depends on the unreasonable man.

-George Bernard Shaw

He who has a why to live can bear almost any how.

- Nietzsche

Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed is more important than any other one thing.

- Abraham Lincoln

Adopt the pace of nature; her secret is patience.

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

Perfection is attained by slow degrees; she requires the hand of time.

- Voltaire

He who is firm and resolute in will molds the world to himself.

- Goethe

For the resolute and determined there is time and opportunity.

- Ralph Waldo Emerson

How strange is the lot of mortals. Each of us is here for a brief sojourn; for what purpose he knows not, though he senses it. But without deeper reflection one knows from daily life that one exists for other people.

- Einstein

Make not your thoughts your prison.

- Shakespeare

Courage is resistance to fear, mastery of fear --- not absence of fear.

- Mark Twain

Little minds attain and are subdued by misfortunes; but great minds rise above them.

- Washington Irving

Habit is stronger than reason.

- G. Santayana

The first and best victory is to conquer self.

- Plato

It is better to conquer yourself than to win a thousand battles. Then the victory is yours and cannot be taken from you. Not by angels or by demons, heaven or hell.

-Gautama Buddha

The only limit to our realization of tomorrow will be our doubts of today.

- F. D. Roosevelt

All my successes have been built on my failures.

- Benjamin Disraeli

Prosperity is not without many fears and distastes; and adversity is not without comforts and hopes.

- Francis Bacon

The man who will become a great person must not merely overcome a thousand obstacles, but must win in spite of a thousands repulses and defeats.

-T. Roosevelt

Whether you think you can or think you can't you are right.

- H. Ford

For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he.

- Proverbs 23:7

It is the mind that maketh good of ill, that maketh wretch or happy, rich or poor.

-Edmund Spenser

We are what we think. With our thoughts we make our world.

- Gautama Buddha

There are no gains without pains.

- B. Franklin

There is no success without hardship.

-Sophocles

I have learned that success is to be measured not so much by the position that one has reached in life as by the obstacles which are overcome while trying to succeed.

- Booker T. Washington

The world is so constructed, that if you wish to enjoy its pleasures, you must also endure its pains. Whether you like it or not, you cannot have one without the other.

-Swami Brahmananda

Keep away from people who try to belittle your ambition. Small people always do that, but the really great make you feel that you, too, can become great.

- Mark Twain

Failure is only the opportunity to more intelligently begin again.

-H. Ford

No one that has ever lived has ever had enough power, prestige, or knowledge to overcome the basic condition of all life--you win some and you lose some.

-K. Keyes

The last function of reason is to recognize that there are an infinity of things which surpass it.

-Blaise Pascal

To mere reason the world always looks two-dimensional.

- Hermann Hesse

Do what you fear and the fear disappears. To fight fear, act. To increase fear --wait, put off, postpone.

- D. J. Schwartz

Do the thing we fear, and the death of fear is certain.

- R. W. Emerson

Do the thing you fear to do and keep on doing it...that is the quickest and surest way every discovered to conquer fear.

-Dale Carnegie

You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face....The danger lies in refusing to face the fear, in not daring to come to grips with it.... You must do the thing you think you cannot do.

- Eleanor Roosevelt

Nothing in life is to feared. It is only to be understood.

- Marie Curie

Our doubts are traitors and make us lose the good we oft might win by fearing to attempt.

-Shakespeare

Far better it is to dare mighty things, to win glorious triumphs, even though checked by failure, than to rank with those poor spirits who neither enjoy much nor suffer much, because they live in the grey twilight that knows neither victory nor defeat.

- Theodore Roosevelt

We are not prisoners of fate, but only prisoners of our own minds.

- Franklin D. Roosevelt

It is not the person who has too little, but the one who craves more, that is poor.

- Seneca

The gem cannot be polished without friction, nor the spirit perfected without trials.

- Chinese proverb

Only when we are no longer afraid do we begin to live.

- Dorothy Thompson

Habit is a cable; we weave a thread of it each day and at last we cannot break it.

-Horace Mann

Great souls are they that who see that spiritual is stronger than any material force, that thoughts rule the world.

- R. W. Emerson

There is no cure for birth and death save to enjoy the interval.

- G. Santayana

Courage is the price that life exacts for granting peace.

- Amelia Earhart

The return from your work must be the satisfaction which that work brings you and the world's need of that work. With this, life is heaven, or as near heaven as you can get. Without this--with work which you despise, which bores you, and which the world does not need--this life is hell.

- William E. B. DuBois

Nothing contributes so much to tranquilize the mind as a steady purpose--a point on which the soul may fix its intellectual eye.

- Mary Shelley

There is no failure except in no longer trying.

- E. Hubbard

How many cares one loses when one decides not to be something but to be someone.

- Coco Chanel

Life means to have something definite to do--a mission to fulfill--and in the measure in which we avoid setting our life to something, we make it empty. Human life, by its very nature, has to be dedicated to something.

- Jose Ortega Y Gasset

Man must evolve for all human conflict a method which rejects revenge, aggression, and retaliation. The foundation of such a method is love.

- Martin Luther King, Jr.

Neither a lofty degree of intelligence nor imagination nor both together go to the making of genius. Love, love, love, that is the soul of genius.

- Mozart

Satisfaction lies in the effort, not in the attainment. Full effort is full victory.

- Mohandas Gandhi

Growth itself contains the germ of happiness.

- Pearl Buck

Honesty is the first chapter of the book of wisdom.

- Thomas Jefferson

The essence of greatness is the perception that virtue is enough.

- R. W. Emerson

No legacy is so rich as honesty.

- Shakespeare

Wealth stays with us a little moment if at all; only our characters are steadfast, not our gold.

- Euripedes

Honesty is the best policy.

- Miguel De Cervantes

Honesty is the best policy.

-Benjamin Franklin

When the imagination and willpower are in conflict, are antagonistic, it is always the imagination which wins, without any exception.

- Emile Coue

Numerous peak performers use the skill of mental rehearsal or visualization...They mentally run through important events before they happen.

- Charles A. Garfield

It is our attitude at the beginning of a difficult task which, more than anything else, will affect its successful outcome.

- William James

In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity.

-Albert Einstein

If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other.

-Mother Teresa

Austere perseverance, harsh and continuous... rarely fails of its purpose, for its silent power grows irresistibly greater with time.

- Goethe

Few things are impossible to diligence and skill....Great works are performed not by strength, but perseverance.

- S. Johnson

Nothing in the world can take the place of persistence. Talent will not; nothing is more common than unsuccessful men with talent. Genius will not; unrewarded genius is almost a proverb. Education will not; the world is full of educated derelicts. Persistence and determination alone are omnipotent.

- Calvin Coolidge

You may have a fresh start any moment you choose, for this thing that we call "failure" is not the falling down, but the staying down.

- Mary Pickford

Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.

- Confucius

It helps, I think, to consider ourselves on a very long journey: the main thing is to keep to the faith, to endure, to help each other when we stumble or tire, to weep and press on.

- Mary Caroline Richards

Everyone has inside of her a piece of good news. The good news is that you don't know how great you can be! How much you can love! What you can accomplish! And what your potential is!

- Anne Frank

Intelligence without wisdom is the most dangerous of all assets.

-R. Chris Barden

There are many truths of which the full meaning cannot be realized until personal experience has brought it home.

-John Stuart Mill

Life is a succession of lessons which must be lived to be understood.

-Emerson

Man must cease attributing his problems to the environment, and learn again to exercise his will--his personal responsibility.

- Albert Schweitzer

Not in the clamor of the crowded street,
Not in the shouts and plaudits of the throng,
But in ourselves are triumph and defeat.

-H.W. Longfellow

Only in growth, reform, and change, paradoxically enough, is true security to be found.

-Anne Morrow Lindbergh

There is no higher religion than human service. To work for the common good in the greatest creed.

-Albert Schweitzer

Life is really simple, but people insist on making it complicated.

-Confucius

If you have done your best, what else is there?

-George S. Patton

Do what you can, with what you have, where you are.

-T. Roosevelt

Relentless, repetitive self talk is what changes our self image.

-Denis Waitley

(psychologist for the U.S.
Olympic teams)

I hear and I forget. I see and I remember. I do and I understand.

-Chinese Proverb

Knowledge comes, but wisdom lingers. It may not be difficult to store up in the mind a vast quantity of facts within a comparatively short time, but the ability to form judgements requires the severe discipline of hard work and the tempering heat of experience and maturity.

-C. Coolidge

Knowledge can be communicated, but wisdom cannot. A man can find it, he can live it, he can be filled and sustained by it, but he cannot utter or teach it.

-Hermann Hesse

Just trust yourself, then you will know how to live.

-Goethe

It is more blessed to give than to receive.

-Acts 20:35

Sow much, reap much; sow little, reap little.

- Chinese Proverb

He who obtains has little. He who scatters has much.

- Lao-Tzu

Remember this - that very little is needed to make a happy life.

-Marcus Aurelius

The gem cannot be polished without friction, nor the spirit perfected without trials.

-Chinese proverb

A man is rich in proportion to the number of things he can afford to let alone.

-H.D. Thoreau

He who is content is rich.

-Lao-Tzu

The only wealth is life.

-H.D. Thoreau

Money never made a man happy yet, nor will it... The more a man has, the more he wants. Instead of filling a vacuum, it makes one.

-Benjamin Franklin

A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

-Luke 12:15

All that I have seen teaches me to trust the Creator for all I have not seen.

-R.W.Emerson

I know this world is ruled by infinite intelligence.... Everything that surrounds us --everything that exists-- proves that there are infinite laws behind it. There can be no denying this fact. It is mathematical in its precision.

-Thomas A. Edison

Seek not to understand that you may believe, but believe that you may understand.

-Saint Augustine

No one is going to turn down a good meal because he does not understand the digestive mechanism.

-V.I. Klassen

"He that soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully."

-2 Corinthians 9:6

The joy of living is his who has the heart to demand it.

-T. Roosevelt

We hold work not as a curse but as a blessing, and we regard the idle with scornful pity.

-T. Roosevelt

Life is a long campaign, where every victory merely leaves the ground free for another battle and sooner or later defeat comes to every man, unless death forestalls it. But the final defeat does not and should not cancel the triumphs, if the latter have been substantial and for a cause worth championing.

-T. Roosevelt

In unflagging interest and enjoyment, a household of children, if things go reasonably well, certainly makes all other forms of success and achievement lose their importance by comparison.

-T. Roosevelt

Never regard your study as a duty, but as the enviable opportunity to learn to know the liberating influence of beauty in the realm of the spirit for your own personal joy and to the profit of the community to which your later work belongs.

- A. Einstein

"... every mother can influence her son to a great extent...And what you do with him and for him has influence, not for a day or for a year, but for time and eternity."

-Rose F. Kennedy

He that can have patience can have what he will.

-Benjamin Franklin

Books are like the windows of a great tower.

- W.L. Stidger

When a man is willing and eager, the gods join in.
Aeschylus

"I long ago despaired of any other reward for my services than the satisfaction arising from a consciousness of doing my duty, and the esteem of my friends."

- George Washington

"Forgive your enemies, but never forget their names."

- John F. Kennedy

It is every man's duty to be beneficent - that is, to promote, according to his means, the happiness of others who are in need, and this without hope of gaining anything by it.

- E. Kant

"The most pragmatic reason for improving one's mind is that this is the place where one increasingly lives as one grows older. As external pleasures diminish with age, a sparsely furnished mind becomes a prison cell when it should be a lounge, a library, and a balcony upon the world."

- L. Hixon

"I wanted to live deeply and suck out all the marrow of life, to front only the essential facts of life, and see if I could not learn what it had to teach, and not, when I come to die, discover that I had not lived."

- H.D. Thoreau

"Of wealth and pleasure, of honors and rewards, the master was singularly independent. "O poverty of man!" he exclaims in one passage, "of how many things do you become the slave for the sake of money!" All he asked was freedom from care, and a quiet home in which he could work and study at leisure. "I am never weary when I am useful," is one of his favorite mottoes. "In serving others I cannot do enough."

J. Cartwright quoting
Leonardo da Vinci

"As a well-spent day gives joy in sleep, so a well-spent life brings joy in dying".

- Leonardo da Vinci

"It is enough to have bread and to live, as I do, in the faith of Christ."

-Michelangelo Buonarroti

There are those who say that the liberation of humanity, the freedom of man and mind is nothing but a dream....they are right. It is the American dream.

- Archibald Macleigsh

What we obtain too cheap, we esteem too lightly: it is dearness only that gives everything its value. Heaven knows how to put a proper price upon its goods, and it would be strange indeed, if so celestial an article as Freedom should not be highly rated.

- Thomas Paine

They that can give up essential Liberty to obtain a little temporary Safety deserve neither Liberty nor Safety.

- Benjamin Franklin

Our constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.

- John Adams

Almighty God, we make our earnest prayer that Thou wilt keep the United States in Thy Holy Protection--and finally that Thou wilt most graciously be pleased to dispose us all to do Justice, to love Mercy and demean ourselves with that Charity, Humility, and Pacific temper of mind which were characteristics of the Divine Author of Our Blessed Religion.

-George Washington

Our reliance is in the love of Liberty which God has planted in us. Our defense is in the spirit which prized liberty as the heritage of all men, in all lands, everywhere.

- Abraham Lincoln

Our ancestors established their system of government on morality and religious sentiment. Moral habits, they believed, cannot safely be trusted on any other foundation than religious principle, nor any government be secure which is not supported by moral habits.

Daniel Webster

Providence has showered on this favored land blessings without number, and has chosen you as the guardians of Freedom, to preserve it for the benefit of the human race. May He enable you to guard and defend to the end of time the great charge He has committed to your keeping.

- Andrew Jackson

All the good from the Saviour of the world is communicated through the Bible; but for the Bible we could not know right from wrong. All the things desirable to man are contained in it.

Abraham Lincoln

The Bible is the one supreme source of revelation of the meaning of life; the nature of God and spiritual nature and need of men. It is the only guide of life which really leads the spirit in the way of peace and salvation.

- Woodrow Wilson

Go to the Scriptures...the joyful promises it contains will be a balsam to all your troubles.

- Andrew Jackson

The foundations of our society and our government rest so much on the teachings of the Bible that it would be difficult to support them if faith in these teachings would cease to be practically universal in our country.

- Calvin Coolidge

The spirit of man is more important than mere physical strength, and the spiritual fiber of a nation than its wealth.

- Dwight D. Eisenhower

God who gave us life gave us liberty. Can the liberties of a nation be secure when we have removed a conviction that these liberties are the gift of God? Indeed, I tremble for my country when I reflect that God is just, that his justice cannot sleep forever.

- Thomas Jefferson

Everyone shall consider the main end of his life and studies to know God and Jesus Christ which is eternal life. Seeing the Lord giveth wisdom, every one shall seriously by prayer in secret seek wisdom of Him. Everyone shall so exercise himself in reading the Scriptures twice a day that they be ready to give an account of their proficiency in therein, both in theoretical observations of languages and logic, and in practical and spiritual truths.

- "Rules and Precepts"-
Harvard College, 1646

As was said 3000 years ago, so it still must be said, "The judgements of the Lord are true and righteous altogether".

- Abraham Lincoln

"God save the United States and the Honorable Court"

-opening statement of all
Supreme Court sessions

"Praise be to God"

- inscription on the top of the Washington monument

We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven. We have been preserved, these many years, in peace and prosperity. We have grown in numbers, wealth and power, as no other nation has ever grown. But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace, and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these blessings were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own. Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us! It behooves us, then to humble ourselves before the offended Power, to confess our national sins, and to pray for clemency and forgiveness.

- Abraham Lincoln

Let us pray for those who have never known Jesus Christ and His redeeming love, for moral forces everywhere, for our leaders. Let prayer be our passion. Let prayer be our practice.

- Robert E. Lee

Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God: I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death.

- Patrick Henry

All who have meditated on the art of governing mankind are convinced that the fate of empires depends on the education of youth.

- Aristotle

I am much afraid that schools will prove to great gates of hell unless they diligently labor in explaining the Holy Scriptures, engraving them in the hearts of youth. I advise no one to place his child where the scriptures do not reign paramount. Every institution in which men are not increasingly occupied with the word of God must become corrupt.

- Martin Luther

Wisdom is a mountain to be climbed, not a flower to be plucked.

- Chinese folk adage

"Though the fig tree may not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines; though the labor of the olive may fail, and the fields yield no food; though the flock be cut off from the fold, and there be no herd in the stalls- yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God of my salvation"

- Habakkuk 3:17-18

"God is that indefinable something which we all feel but which we do not know. To me God is Truth and Love, God is ethics and morality. God is fearlessness. God is the source of light and life and yet He is above and beyond all these. God is conscience. He is even the atheism of the atheist. He transcends speech and reason. He is a personal God to those who need his Touch. He is the purest essence. He simply is to those who have faith. He is long suffering. He is patient but He is also Terrible. He is the greatest democrat the world knows, for He leaves us unfettered to make our own choice between evil and good."

-Gandhi

"Forgiveness is the decoration of the brave"

-Gandhi quoting a
Sanskrit proverb

"Sometimes prayer requires no conscious thought at all, only silent awareness. Supplication, worship, and prayer are not superstitious. They are acts more real than the acts of eating, drinking, sitting, or walking. Although prayer springs from the purity of the heart, prayer needs no speech. It is in itself independent of any sensuous effort...an unending means of cleansing the heart of passions."

-Gandhi

"All religions are almost as dear to me as my own Hinduism, in as much as all human beings should be as dear to one as one's own close relatives."

-Gandhi

When asked ,what are we to do?, the master replied. "Think of the poorest man that you have ever met and then ask yourself if what you are doing is of any benefit to him."

-Gandhi

In matters of conscience, the law of majority has no place."

-Gandhi

A man who has attained mastery of an art reveals it in his every action.

-Samuri maxim

Knowing others is wisdom ,knowing yourself is Enlightenment.

-Lao-tzu

Enlightenment is recognizing the inherent harmony of everyday life.

-Zen proverb

Sitting quietly, doing nothing, spring comes and the grass grows all by itself.

-Zen proverb

When you seek it, you cannot find it.

-Zen proverb

Those who are patient in the trivial things in life and control themselves will one day have the same mastery in great and important things.

-Master Han

The mind should be nowhere in particular.

-Takuan

Flow with whatever may happen and let your mind be free: Stay centered by accepting whatever you are doing. This is the ultimate.

-Chuang-tzu

Softness triumphs over hardness, feebleness over strength. What is more malleable is always superior over that which is immovable. This is the principle of controlling things by going along with them, of mastery through adaptation.

-Lao-tzu

Control your emotion or it will control you.

-Chinese adage

The angry man will defeat himself in battle and in life.

-Samuri maxim

To know and to act are one and the same.

-Zen proverb

Without mind there cannot be pain. Once you can conquer pain, your whole attitude about the conquest of other things less harsh than pain is enhanced.

-Martial arts maxim

The mind is like a fertile garden. It will grow anything you wish to plant-beautiful flowers or weeds. And so it is with successful, healthy thoughts of with negative ones that will, like weeds, strangle and crowd the others.

-Bruce Lee

The Way of Life

A man is born gentle and weak
 At his death he is hard and stiff
 Green plants are tender and filled with sap.
 At their death they are withered and dry.
 Therefore the stiff and unbending is the disciple of death.

The gentle and yielding is the disciple of life.
 Thus an army without flexibility never wins a battle.

A tree that is unbending is easily broken.
 The hard and strong will fall.
 The soft and weak will overcome.

-Lao-tzu

To win one hundred victories in one hundred battles is not the highest skill. To subdue the enemy without fighting is the highest skill.

-Sun-tzu

Seek not after riches nor the vain things of this world; for behold, you cannot carry them with you.

-Alma 39:14

A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

-Proverbs 28:20

Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come follow me. And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

-Luke 18:12-34

As long as what you are doing at the moment is exactly what you are doing at that moment and nothing else, you are one with yourself and with what you are doing-and that is Zen: while doing something you are doing it to the fullest.

-Bruce Lee

For the uncontrolled there is no wisdom, nor for the uncontrolled is there the power of concentration; and for him without concentration there is no peace. And for the unpeaceful, how can there be happiness?

-Bhagavad Gita

If your ears see and your eyes hear
you will cherish no doubts
How naturally the rain
drips from the eaves!

-Daito Kokushi

All worries come from being addicted to the idea of the self.

-D.T.Suzuki

Time is the most valuable thing a man can spend.

- Theophrastus

Nothing is so dear and precious as time.

- Rabelais

An adventure is only an inconvenience rightly understood.
An inconvenience is only an adventure wrongly considered.

- Chesterton

There is no real excellence in all this world that can be separated from right living.

- D. Starr Jordan

What you are shouts so loudly in my ears I cannot hear what you say.

- R. W. Emerson

We are free to choose, but we are not free to alter the consequences of those choices.

- Ezra T. Benson.

The significant problems we face cannot be solved at the same level of thinking we were at when we created them.

- A. Einstein

We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act, but a habit.

- Aristotle

I know of no more encouraging fact than the unquestionable ability of man to elevate his life by conscious endeavor.

- H. D. Thoreau

They cannot take away our self-respect if we do not give it to them.

- Gandhi

The foundation of content must spring up in the mind, and he who hath so little knowledge of human nature as to seek happiness by changing anything but his own disposition, will waste his life in fruitless efforts and multiply the grief he proposes to remove.

- Samuel Johnson

What lies before us and what lies behind us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us.

- O. W. Holmes

Management is doing things right; leadership is doing the right things.

- P. Drucker and W.
Bennis

He that is good with a hammer tends to think everything is a nail.

- A. Maslow

Most people seem to think that success in one area can compensate for failure in other areas of life. But can it really?... Can success in your profession compensate for a broken marriage, lost friendships, ruined health, or weakness in personal character? True effectiveness requires balance.

- S. R. Covey

There can be no friendship without confidence, and no confidence without integrity.

- Samuel Johnson

If one's motives are wrong, nothing can be right. As long as you feel you are serving others, you can do the job well. When you are concerned only with helping yourself, you do it less well -- a law as inexorable as gravity.

- A. Gordon

A life of integrity is the most fundamental source of personal worth.

- Stephen R. Covey

I am of the opinion that my life belongs to the whole community and as long as I live it is my privilege to do for it whatever I can. I want to be thoroughly used up when I die. For the harder I work the more I live. I rejoice in life for its own sake. Life is no brief candle to me. It's a sort of splendid torch which I've got to hold up for the moment and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.

- G. B. Shaw

He who cannot change the very fabric of his thought will never be able to change reality, and will never, therefore, make any progress.

- Anwar Sadat

It has been stated that "the moral test of government is how it treats those who are in the dawn of life, the children; those who are in the twilight of life, the aged; and those who are in the shadows of life, the sick, the needy, and the handicapped."

- Hubert H. Humphrey

There is in the world only one figure of absolute beauty: Christ. That infinitely lovely figure is an infinite marvel.

- Dostoyevsky

Man is what he believes.

- Anton Chekov

One person with a belief is equal to a force of ninety-nine who have only interests.

- John Stuart Mill

They can because they think they can.

- Virgil

The secret of success is making your vocation your vacation.

- Mark Twain

Don't find fault find a remedy.

- Henry Ford

Let all things be done decently and in order.

- I Corinthians 14:40

Our bodies are our gardens.....our wills are gardeners.

- W. Shakespeare

You know what Pythagoras, Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Leonardo Da Vinci, Isaac Newton, Voltaire, Henry David Thoreau, George Bernard Shaw, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Edison, Dr. Albert Schweitzer, and Mahatma Gandhi have in common? They were all vegetarians.

- Anthony Robbins

Where there is no vision, people perish.

- Proverbs 29:18

There is no expedient to which a man will not go to avoid the real labor of thinking.

- Thomas Edison

If you would first win a man to your cause, first convince him that you are his sincere friend.

- A. Lincoln

The man who never changes his opinion is like standing water and breeds reptiles of the mind.

- W. Blake

The best soldier does not attack. The superior fighter succeeds without violence. The greatest conqueror wins without a struggle. The most successful manager leads without dictating. This is called intelligent nonaggressiveness. This is called mastery of men.

- Lao Tsu

I developed the habit of expressing myself in terms of modest diffidence, never using, when I advanced anything that may possibly be disputed, the words certainly, undoubtedly, or any other that give the air of positiveness to an opinion, but rather say, I conceive or apprehend a thing to be so and so: It appears to me or I should not think it, so or so, for such and such reasons: or, I imagine it to be so; or it is so, if I am not mistaken. This habit I believe has been of great advantage to me when I have had occasion to inculcate my opinion and persuade men into measures that I have been, from time to time, engaged in promoting.

- Benjamin Franklin

One who is too insistent on his own views, finds few to agree with him.

- Lao-Tsu

Everything that enlarges the sphere of human powers, that shows man he can do what he thought he could not do, is valuable.

- Ben Jonson

Happiness and success are not the result of what we have but of how we live.

- R. Christopher Barden

There are many truths of which the full meaning cannot be realized until personal experience has brought it home.

- John Stuart Mill

Life is a succession of lessons which must be lived to be understood.

-Emerson

What the caterpillar calls the end of the world the Master calls a butterfly.

-Zen proverb

As I wander through the dark, encountering difficulties, I am aware of encouraging voices that murmur from the spirit realm. I sense a holy passion pouring down from the springs of Infinity. I thrill to music that beats with the pulses of God. Bound to suns and planets by invisible cords, I feel the flame of eternity in my soul. Here, in the midst of the every-day air, I sense the rush of ethereal rains. I am conscious of the splendor that binds all things of earth to all things of heaven -- immured by silence and darkness, I possess the light which shall give me vision a thousandfold when death sets me free.

- Helen Keller

What is so sweet as to awake from a troubled dream and behold a beloved face smiling upon you? I love to believe that such shall be our awakening from earth to heaven. My faith never wavers that each dear friend I have 'lost' is a new link between this world and the happier land beyond the morn. My soul is for the moment, bowed down with grief when I cease to feel the touch of their hands or hear a tender word from them; but the light of faith never fades from my sky, and I take heart again, glad that they are free. I cannot understand why anyone should fear death. Life here is more cruel than death -- life divides and estranges, while death, which at heart is life eternal, reunites and reconciles. I believe that when the eyes within my physical eyes shall open upon the world to come, I shall simply be consciously living in the country of my heart."

- Helen Keller

Believe that life is worth living, and your belief will create the fact.

- William James

For every man there is a spark which, if kindled, will set the whole being afire, until he becomes a human dynamo capable of accomplishing almost anything to which he aspires. Too many people want to succeed, but will not pay the price of success. Some folks have a wishbone instead of a backbone. They are not willing to subject themselves to hard labor. They can see easily enough how the law of cause and effect must work out for other people, but they expect to have it suspended for them. Too many people think about pull, when they should be thinking about push. They believe mistakenly in luck, not pluck.

- J.C. Penny

God sells us all things at the price of labor.

- Leonardo da Vinci

The difference between the right word and the nearly right word is the difference between lightning and a lightning bug.

- Mark Twain

" Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety."

- Benjamin Franklin

The courage we desire and prize is not the courage to die decently but to live manfully.

- Thomas Carlyle

Public life is the crown of a career, and to young men it is the worthiest ambition. Politics is still the greatest and most honorable adventure.

- Lord Tweedsmuir

One man with courage makes a majority.

- Andrew Jackson

It is left only to God and the angels to be lookers on.

- Francis Bacon

Politics is a field where action is one long second best, and where the choice constantly lies between two blunders.

- John Morley

All legislation... is founded upon the principle of mutual concession... Let him who elevates himself above humanity, above its weaknesses, its infirmities, its wants, its necessities, say if he pleases, "I will never compromise"; but let no one who is not above the frailties of our common nature disdain compromise.

- Henry Clay

Bring up your children in the love and fear of the Lord....Let it be your constant care that the children that God has so kindly given you are taught in their early youth the importance of the oracles of God, and the beauty of the principles of our holy religion, that when they grow to the years of man and womanhood they may always cherish a tender regard for them and never forsake the truth...Teach your children by precept and example, the importance of addressing the Lord...and when instructing them in the principles of the Gospel, teach them that they are true.

- Brigham Young

"Happiness is the object and design of our existence; and will be the end thereof, if we pursue the path that leads to it; and this path is virtue, uprightness, faithfulness, holiness, and keeping the commandments of God"

- Joseph Smith

"The antidote for pride is humility--meekness, submissiveness.... God will have a humble people. Either we can choose to be humble or we can be compelled to be humble... We can choose to humble ourselves by conquering enmity toward our brothers and sisters, esteeming them as ourselves, and lifting them as high or higher than we are... We can choose to humble ourselves by receiving counsel and chastisement... by forgiving those who have offended us... by rendering selfless service... by going on missions and preaching the word that can humble others.... by getting to the temple more frequently, [and] by confessing and forsaking our sins and being born of God.... We can choose to humble ourselves by loving God, submitting our will to His, and putting Him first in our lives".

-Ezra Taft Benson

Seek not for riches but for wisdom, and behold, the mysteries of God shall be unfolded unto you.
